You may know of an organization or cause to which you would like to make a grant, however, after searching our database, you don't find it listed.

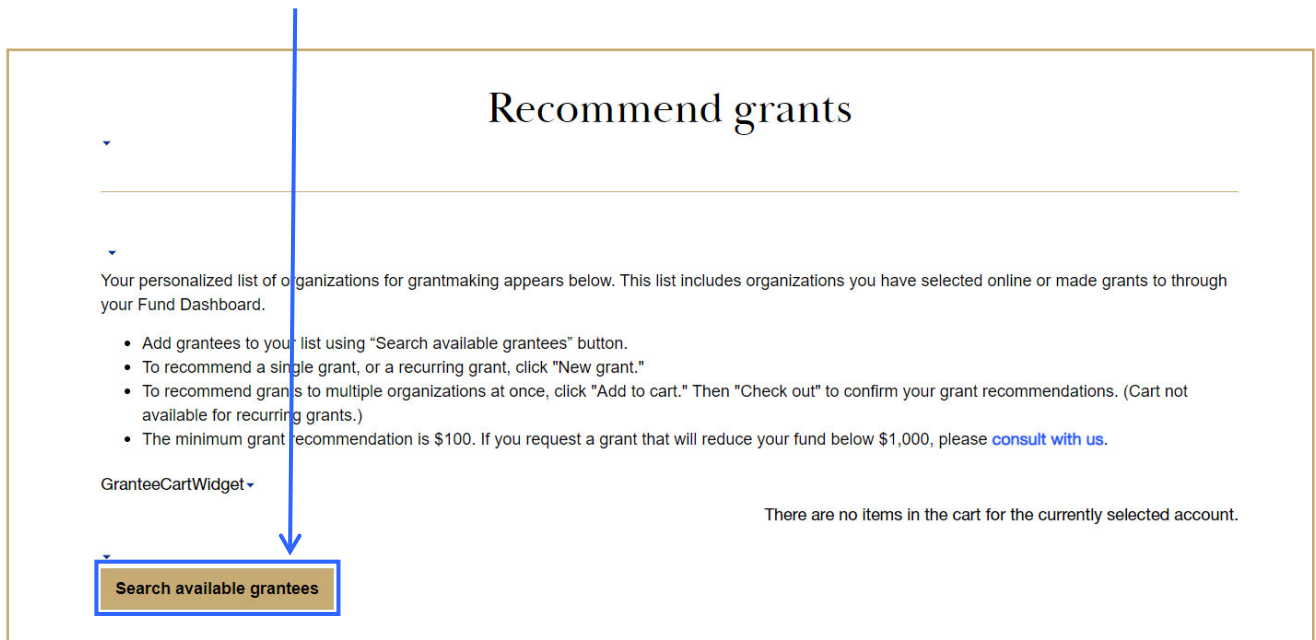

In these cases, you can easily suggest a new grantee and make a grant immediately.

Suggesting a New Grantee

From your Fund Dashboard, navigate to the “Recommend Grants” page.

From here, click on “Search available grantees”.

Click on “Suggest a new grantee”.

Search grantee organizations

Search grantee organizations

Use this page to search for a grantee to add to my grantee list.

- For better results, try entering only the first few characters of the grantee name. (e.g., try "Salv" instead of "Salvation Army of St. Louis").
- If you do not find the grantee you want, try to refine your search by using the state filter or by entering less specific information.
- Leaving the search field blank will return all available charities in the selected state.
- You can also click here to suggest a new grantee. Watch this short video to learn how.

In the results list, click on the desired organization to add it to my grantee list, or return to my grantee list.

Suggest a grantee

Please enter the information below about this potential grantee organization. Our team will perform a due diligence review of this organization before any grant payments can be distributed. In the meantime, this organization will show in your grantee list. You will be able to recommend grants to it, though they will not be processed until the organization is approved by Thrivent Charitable. If you need help, watch this short video to learn how to suggest a new grantee.

If you do not wish to suggest a grantee at this time, you can go back to your grantee list or search approved grantees.
